

Gartner Separate Consent Letter

2023

Please read this Letter carefully and ensure that you fully understand this Letter.

Your personal information as listed below (“Personal Information”) will be collected, transferred outside of mainland China and processed by Gartner group companies and other legitimate processing parties for the Transfer and Processing Purposes as described below. We are asking for your separate consent for this processing under China’s Personal Information Protection Law (“PIPL”).

You have the right to withhold your separate consent. However, without your separate consent, we can’t identify you and may not transfer and process your Personal Information. As a result, you will NOT have access to Gartner’s appropriate services/products for the Transfer and Processing Purpose (as described below), which includes without limitation to your downloading of Gartner’s article(s)/ eBook(s) and Gartner’s sharing with you other content/opportunities that you may be interested in.

We will take necessary measures to ensure the transfer and processing of your Personal Information by the overseas recipients will meet the equivalent level of protection as described under PIPL.

1. Contact Information of Overseas Recipient (Gartner Inc.)

Global Data Protection Office
Legal Department
56 Top Gallant Road
Stamford, CT 09602
USA

2. Transfer and Processing Purpose

Allow you to receive Gartner’s appropriate products / services (including without limitation to your downloading of Gartner’s article(s)/eBook(s) and Gartner’s sharing with you other content/opportunities that you may be interested in) for the purposes of sales, marketing, and research, and allow Gartner to protect its legitimate rights including without limitation to its intellectual property right (“Transfer and Processing Purpose”).

We appreciate you understand that cross-border supports and resources outside of mainland China, in terms of Gartner’s offering of products/services under the Transfer and Processing Purpose, are necessary for Gartner who is a globally operating multinational company.

For more details, pls refer to the full Gartner Privacy Policy at <https://www.gartner.com/en/about/policies/privacy>.

3. How will your Personal Information be Processed

Your Personal Information is collected locally by one of Gartner's China vendors (CIO Times). Such information will be provided cross-border to Gartner Inc. in the USA for the Transfer and Processing Purpose.

Within Gartner group of companies, the products/services under the Transfer and Processing Purpose that you may be interested in have been delegated/entrusted to Gartner Inc. to provide.

Gartner Inc. uses the automation tool of overseas third-party vendor(s) to reach out to you via your Personal Information. This automation process is under the control and supervision of Gartner Inc.

For the Transfer and Processing Purpose, you will also be contacted by Gartner by internet, mobile, telephone and email, in terms of Gartner products/services/events that you may be interested in.

You have the right to opt out from being contacted by us if you follow the way to exercise such right as described below.

For more details of how Gartner will process your Personal Information, pls refer to the full Gartner Privacy Policy at <https://www.gartner.com/en/about/policies/privacy>.

4. Types of Personal Information to be Collected/Transferred/Processed

Your name, the company you work for, your job title, your email address and your phone number.

5. How to exercise your rights under PIPL on Overseas Recipient

You may contact Gartner Inc. via regular mail at the above address, or email privacy@gartner.com to exercise your legitimate rights under PIPL. When doing so, please provide your full name, email/contact number and identity credential for our verification, and your specific request under PIPL. We may get back to you with additional information request as necessary for our fulfilment of your request. Thank you for your understanding and cooperation.
